PROPOSED RULES

Pursuant to Minn. Laws of 1980, § 15.0412, subd. 4h, an agency may propose to adopt, amend, suspend or repeal rules without first holding a public hearing, as long as the agency determines that the rules will be noncontroversial in nature. The agency must first publish a notice of intent to adopt rules without a public hearing, together with the proposed rules, in the State Register. The notice must advise the public:

1. that they have 30 days in which to submit comment on the proposed rules;
  2. that no public hearing will be held unless seven or more persons make a written request for a hearing within the 30-day comment period;
  3. of the manner in which persons shall request a hearing on the proposed rules;
- and
4. that the rule may be modified if modifications are supported by the data and views submitted.

If, during the 30-day comment period, seven or more persons submit to the agency a written request for a hearing of the proposed rules, the agency must proceed under the provisions of § 15.0412, subds. 4 through 4g, which state that if an agency decides to hold a public hearing, it must publish in the State Register a notice of its intent to do so. This notice must appear at least 30 days prior to the date set for the hearing, along with the full text of the proposed rules. (If the agency has followed the provisions of subd. 4h and has already published the proposed rules, a citation to the prior publication may be substituted for republication.)

Pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 15.0412, subd. 5, when a statute, federal law or court order to adopt, suspend or repeal a rule does not allow time for the usual rulemaking process, temporary rules may be proposed. Proposed temporary rules are published in the State Register, and for at least 30 days thereafter, interested persons may submit data and views in writing to the proposing agency.

State of Minnesota

Kern and Tabery, Inc.,

Appellant,

v.

The Commissioner of Revenue,

Appellee.

Tax Court

In the matter of an appeal, from the Commissioner's
Order dated September 14,
1979, pertaining to sales &
use tax liability of appellant.

Docket No. 2984

Order dated January 9, 1981.

This is an appeal from an Order of the Commissioner of Revenue dated September 14, 1979 determining sales and use tax liability of appellant in the amount of $7,558.77 including penalty and interest. The transactions involved are purchases by appellant, a road building contractor, of fill material from landowners under options in leases. The two issues are whether these transactions constitute sales of tangible personal property and, in addition, whether these transactions are exempt as isolated or occasional sales under Minn. Stat. § 297A.25, subd. 1(k).

Robert A. Albrecht of Moore, Costello & Hart, appeared for appellant,

Thomas K. Overton, Special Assistant Attorney General, appeared for appellee.

Decision

The Order of the Commissioner of Revenue is reversed.

The essential facts have been stipulated by the parties and, in addition, an evidentiary hearing was held at the Tax Court in St. Paul on September 11, 1980 before Judge Earl B. Gustafson.

The Stipulation of Facts agreed upon between the parties is adopted by the Court as follows:

Findings of Fact

Earl B. Gustafson

1. Kern and Tabery, Inc. is a general contractor engaged, among other things, in the business of constructing highways. During 1976, 1977 and 1978 Kern and Tabery built interstate and state highways for the Minnesota Department of Transportation.

2. Kern and Tabery used fill materials (subsoil) in the construction of such highways for the Minnesota Department of Transportation.

3. Prior to submitting bids to the Department of Transportation for such construction projects, Kern and Tabery and other potential bidders negotiated with owners of lands in the vicinity of such projects which contained fill materials suitable for use in such projects. The landowners involved were primarily engaged in farming. The lands involved were, generally speaking, farm lands. A potential bidder desires to obtain fill at the lowest possible cost. Some bidders attempt to exclude other bidders from obtaining fill (exclusive contract). Each landowner desires to obtain a non-exclusive contract at the highest possible price. Kern and Tabery did not attempt to obtain exclusive contracts prior to the submission of bids, but did obtain quotations from landowners before submitting bids. Other potential bidders also obtained quotations before submitting their bids.

4. Kern and Tabery used such quotations in computing its bid to the Department of Transportation on such highway construction projects.

5. After Kern and Tabery was awarded a general construction contract for a highway project by the Department of Transportation, it entered into written contracts with one or more of such landowners, such as those attached hereto as Exhibits 1, 2 and 3, which are representative thereof.

6. These landowners had never entered into any contracts involving fill materials prior to the events described herein.

7. These contracts were for a term of at least one year.

8. Kern and Tabery obtained fill materials from these lands under such contracts by cutting down hills on such lands, removing the topsoil therefrom, removing the subsoil therefrom for fill, and replacing the topsoil on such lands when the job was completed. On most projects fill was removed from such lands over a period of several months. The landowner who owned such lands received regular reports from Kern and Tabery of the quantities of fill removed.

9. The landowners were paid under such contracts on the basis of the number of cubic yards of fill removed.

10. Each land owner would be willing to enter into similar contracts in the future if the opportunity arose, but none of these landowners has had such an opportunity since his contract with Kern and Tabery.

11. Kern and Tabery paid no sales tax to such landowners and no use tax to the State of Minnesota with respect to the fill materials.

Conclusions of Law

1. The transactions in question are sales of tangible personal property at retail ordinarily subject to the Minnesota Sales and Use Tax, Ch. 297A, Minnesota Statutes.

2. Based upon the specific facts of this case the transactions in question come within the exemption to the Sales and Use Tax as isolated or occasional sales under Minn. Stat. § 297A.25, subd. 1(k).

3. The Order of the Commissioner of Revenue assessing sales and use tax liability should be reversed.

Memorandum

Appellant, Kern and Tabery, Inc., is a road building contractor. To obtain fill materials for use in its highway construction projects, Kern and Tabery entered into lease agreements with farmers near construction sites that contained options to purchase fill materials from the leased lands for a set price per cubic yard. All of the land was farm land and the owners were farmers who had never entered into contracts involving the sale of fill materials before. None have made similar contracts since. These leases were from one to two years and rent was a nominal $1.00.

If appellant had need for fill material on a nearby highway project, it would first remove the topsoil, then, remove the required amount of subsoil for fill and replace the topsoil when the job was completed. On most projects fill was removed from the land over a period of several months. The land disturbed or altered in this process were hills or high ground that were returned to the owners as lower or more level ground ready to be used for agricultural purposes again.

Kern and Tabery paid no sales tax to the landowners and no use tax to the State of Minnesota on the purchase of these fill materials.

The Commissioner of Revenue claims there is a use tax due because these transactions constitute the purchase of tangible personal property taxable under Minn. Stat. § 297A.14.

The appellant denies any tax is owed and claims this was not the purchase of tangible personal property but rather the exercise of its right under the lease to enter upon the land and remove fill. Whether or not appellant had acquired a "profit a prendre," an interest in real estate, there is no doubt that it purchased and paid for fill material by the cubic yard. This fill was tangible personal property once it was removed from the land and hauled away to the road construction site. Barring an exemption the transaction would be taxable.

Appellant raises another and more persuasive defense, however. It claims no sales or use tax is due because the purchase of fill from farmers are isolated or occasional sales purchased from a person who is not engaged in selling such property in the normal course of business and therefore exempt under Minn. Stat. § 297A.25, subd. 1(k).

The applicable statute reads as follows:

Minn. Stat. § 297A.25, subd. 1. Exemptions. The following are specifically exempted from the taxes imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44:

* * * *

(k) The gross receipts from the isolated or occasional sale of tangible personal property in Minnesota not made in the normal course of business of selling that kind of property, and the storage, use, or consumption of property acquired as a result of such a sale . . .

The governing Sales and Use Tax Regulation reads as follows:

Tax S&U 411 Isolated or Occasional Sales.

(a) In general. As provided in Section 297A.25, Subd. 1 (k), the sales or use tax does not apply to isolated or occasional sales of tangible personal property made by a person who is not engaged in selling such property in the normal course of business. The term "isolated" is defined as "standing alone or solitary." The term "occasional" is defined as "occurring at infrequent intervals" or as "incidental" or as "casual"; that is, as distinguished from events of a similar nature recurring with some degree of regularity.

TAX COURT

(b) Isolated or occasional sales. The following transactions are considered to be isolated or occasional sales:

(1) Infrequent sales of a non-recurring nature made by a person not engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property. (Emphasis added)

It is clear from the record that the farmers who sold this fill material to appellant were "not engaged in selling such property in the normal course of business." They were in the business of farming and not in the business of selling fill, gravel or other road building materials. Only because of the fortuitous proximity of their land to highway projects did the farmers have occasion to sell this sub-soil material.

The commissioner argues that each load of material removed constituted a separate sale and therefore there were a series of sales not just an "occasional or isolated" sale. There certainly were a number of truck loads of soil removed, but each farmer, in essence, made only one sale. They were not paid separately for each load. Once all the material was removed the farmer was paid the entire amount based upon the cubic yards removed. Some interim payments may have been made but these were only based on estimates of the quantities of material removed to that date.

Our holding in this case is strictly limited to the facts presented. There may be farmers who regularly sell fill, topsoil or gravel and who would be considered as being in that business. That is not the case before us.

The complete separation of these transactions from the sellers' normal course of business plus the unitary nature of these transactions between appellant and each farmer brings them within the exceptions of § 297A.25, subd. 1(k).

Judge of Tax Court

Decisions Filed Friday, January 16, 1981

Compiled by John McCarthy, Clerk

51097, 51170/387 Arthur J. Juve, Jr., et al, Marlyn Vorgert, Plaintiff, Gambles C & M Leasing Company, et al, H. J. Heinz Company, et al, Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, vs. Home Indemnity Company, et al, Appellants, Jerome M. Kunza, et al. Otter Tail County.

The insurance policy issued to the city here does not provide excess liability insurance coverage to the driver-owner of a vehicle which was not a "hired automobile" as defined in the policy.

The driver-owner was also specifically excluded under a clause denying coverage to owners of such vehicles.

Reversed. Sheran, C. J.

50813/Sp. State of Minnesota vs. Eddie Davis, Appellant. Hennepin County.

Trial court did not err in admitting eyewitness identification testimony challenged as being product of unnecessarily suggestive identification procedures.

Trial court did not abuse its discretion in admitting, pursuant to R. 801 (d) (2) (E), Minn. R. Evid., testimony against defendant concerning statements made by a coconspirator.

Evidence of defendant's guilt was sufficient to sustain the verdict.

Affirmed. Sheran, C. J. Took no part. Amdahl, J.

51455/Sp. In the Matter of the Appeal of Wayne G. Hasty from the Order of the Brainerd Police and Fire Civil Service Commission. Crow Wing County.

To the extent that Rules 13 and 14, Special Rules of Practice, Ninth Judicial District, do not irreconcilably conflict with Minn. Stat. § 419.12 (1978) they may be applied to proceedings brought thereunder.

In an appeal under Minn. Stat. § 419.12 (1978) the appellant must bear the costs of preparing a transcript.

Sheran, C. J.

51193/Sp. Commissioner, Department of Economic Security, State of Minnesota, vs. JEK Industries, Inc., Relator. Department of Economic Security.

Affirmed with modification. Todd, J.

50789/359 State of Minnesota, on Behalf of Wendy Forslund (Cooper), vs. Richard Bronson, Appellant. Anoka County.

Minn. Stat. § 257.251 (1971) (repealed 1980) establishes a statutory requirement of support of illegitimate children by the father which parallels the common law requirement of support by the mother, thus making the duty of support coextensive and does not create a gender-based classification.

Minn. Stat. § 257.251 (1971) (repealed 1980) does not place a greater burden of support of children upon unmarried fathers than the statute requiring support by married fathers places upon such fathers, and does not deny equal protection on basis of marital status.

Affirmed. Amdahl, J.

50803/372 In the Matter of the Petitions of Space Center Inc. and Honeywell Inc. for Reduction of Taxes and Assessed Valuation of a Certain Tract of Real Estate in the City of St. Louis Park, County of Hennepin. Space Center, Inc. and Honeywell Inc., petitioners, Relators, vs. County of Hennepin. Tax Court.

The present use and configuration of a building are items of value to be weighed only to the extent they affect its selling price.

The Tax Court gave undue weight to "value-in-use" as a factor for calculating market value where evidence clearly established the building could not be sold without extensive alterations.

Reversed and remanded. Simonett, J.

50458, 50684/Sp. State of Minnesota vs. Elizabeth N. Ellert, Appellant. Hennepin County.

Evidence that shooting was intentional, not accidental, was sufficient.

Trial court did not commit prejudicial error in any evidentiary rulings.

Prosecutor did not commit prejudicial error.

Trial court did not commit prejudicial error in any of its instructions.

Affirmed. Simonett, J.

Any activity that would change the course, current or cross-section of public waters or wetlands requires a permit from the Commissioner of Natural Resources. Minnesota Statutes, § 105.42, subd. 1 (1979). Designation as public waters or wetlands does not transfer ownership of the bed or shore, does not grant the public any greater right of access to those waters than was available prior to designation and does not prevent a landowner from utilizing the bed of those waters for pasture or cropland during periods of drought. Minnesota Statutes, § 105.391, subds. 10 and 12 (1979).

All petitioners may be represented by counsel or anyone else of their choosing and shall be given an opportunity to be heard orally, to present and cross-examine witnesses and to submit written data, statements or arguments. Petitioners should bring all evidence bearing on these matters including maps, records or other documents.

Failure to attend may result in the challenged waters being designated public waters or wetlands and may prejudice your rights in this and subsequent proceedings.

It is hereby ordered, and notice is hereby given that a contested case hearing concerning the above-entitled matter will be held on March 10, 1981 at 9:00 a.m. in Room 110, St. Louis County Court House, Duluth, Minnesota.

The hearing will be held before Mr. Harry Seymour Crump, 1745 University Avenue, Saint Paul, Minnesota 55104 (Telephone: 612-296-8111), a Hearing Examiner appointed by the Chief Hearing Examiner of the State of Minnesota. All parties have the right to be represented by legal counsel or any other representative of their choice throughout the contested case proceeding. 3. That applicant presently maintains shop, terminal and related yard and other facilities at Duluth, Minnesota.
4. That applicant desires to terminate the providing of agency service at Duluth, Minnesota and to abandon the terminal, shop, yard and related facilities located at Duluth, Minnesota.
5. That this application is filed under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1980, Chapter 219, including Secs. 219.70, 219.71 and 219.85.
6. That the basis for terminating agency service and abandoning terminal, shop, yard and related facilities, relocating same to the State of Wisconsin, include the following:
  - (a) through the construction of Interstate 35, a part of the Federal interstate highway system, and the extension of same through downtown Duluth, Minnesota, certain switching yards located in Duluth, Minnesota proximate to the downtown area will be relocated.
  - (b) While the relocation of said switching yards is not a subject of this Petition, the relocation of such switching yards will render the current agency service, terminal, shop, yard and related operations of the Duluth, Winnipeg and Pacific Railway Company at Duluth inappropriate, uneconomical and impractical, so as to compel the relocation of same.
  - (c) That an investigation of prospective sites for any new facility has been conducted by Petitioner, independent consultant and the Minnesota Department of Transportation in connection with the proposed construction of the interstate highway extensions; the City of Duluth; and Petition and that the most practical available site for such facility is located immediately south and west of Superior, Wisconsin in the area known as "Pokegama", such site providing a practical and reasonable location for agency, terminal, shop, yard and related facilities.
  - (d) That Petitioner is proposing to construct new agency, terminal, shop, yard and related facilities at said Pokegama location and that such location will produce more efficient and economical and timely rail service to the benefit of persons utilizing the Duluth, Winnipeg and Pacific Railway.
  - (e) That under the terms of Petitioner's contract with Unions representing employees of the Duluth, Winnipeg and Pacific Railway Company, all employees will be provided with economic protection.
  - (f) That the actual physical move involves a move of less than 20 miles, so that employees and users of the railroad will still find reasonably convenient facilities for their purposes located at the new facility.
7. As a result of the proposed termination of agency service and abandonment of the shop, terminal, yard and related facilities, no substantial injury to the public will occur and such change will not be detrimental to the public welfare.
8. The proposed action set forth herein is contingent upon acquisition of land; approval of governmental bodies, including federal, state and local government, and other matters. Any Order approving and/or correcting the matters set forth herein should be contingent upon such approvals."
